Racial equity is a funding priority for the Howard Gilman Foundation. We recognize, however, that numbers only tell part of the story. We invite you to share how your organization engages with racial equity in the organization's administration (staff and Board), artistic choices, audience/community outreach, and/or how your organization's programming contributes to greater racial equity in the field at large. You are welcome to address gender equity, disability and access, other forms of equity, or additional communities served by your mission, as well. You are also welcome to upload any materials relevant to your organization's equity work.

Note: Organizations by and for People of Color are not required to answer this question but are welcome to speak to their work in this area or regarding other kinds of equity if desired.

If your organization has materials reflecting your work on equity, such as strategic planning documents, action plans, consultant reports, etc, you may upload them here.
